

Ms. Barbara Siciliano

Senior Counter Intelligence Officer (SCIO)
DOE-Counterintelligence, Idaho Operations Office
Idaho National Laboratory

Ms. Barbara Siciliano has more than 28 years of experience in the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), Directorate of Operations (DO) clandestine service. She retired in July 2017 after reaching the Senior Intelligence Service rank of SIS-3 and was awarded the Distinguished Career Intelligence Medal. She served 12 years abroad with numerous assignments in Eastern Europe, Europe, South Asia, the Middle East, and in key leadership positions in Washington, D.C.

Ms. Siciliano led the planning and conduct of critical intelligence programs and operations to collect foreign intelligence on traditional national security priorities, counterterrorism, counterproliferation and counterintelligence. She has a Bachelor of Arts with honors in history and a graduate certificate in Russian and East European languages and literature from Indiana University, Bloomington.