

Ms. Carol Mascareñas
Director, Environment, Safety, Health & Quality
Idaho National Laboratory

With more than 32 years of experience, Ms. Carol Mascareñas leads INL’s Environment, Safety, Health & Quality Directorate. She brings a wealth of experience and knowledge to this position, including 25 years in management roles with increasing levels of responsibility. Previously at INL, she was ES&H deputy director for four years, and held director roles in Occupational Safety and Health, Occupational Medicine and Environmental Compliance.

A licensed civil engineer, she has been a regulator, a private consultant and a DOE contractor (industry). Ms. Mascareñas is serving a gubernatorial appointment to the Idaho Board of Environmental Quality, and previously sat on the Operations Committee for Pacific Northwest National Laboratory. She is management champion for the PRISM Employee Resource Group at INL.

Ms. Mascareñas earned a bachelor’s degree in civil engineering from California State Polytechnic University.