INL AND IDAHO ECONOMIC IMPACT

INL CARES INITIATIVE ♥

Battelle Energy Alliance, the nonprofit company that operates INL, launched the INL Cares Initiative, a community impact program that made a $200,000 investment in eastern Idaho communities affected by the COVID-19 pandemic.

FIGHTING FOOD INSECURITY: $60,000

Idaho Falls Community Food Basket, serving Idaho Falls and the Upper Snake River Valley, received $40,000. Idaho Food Bank, located in Pocatello, received $20,000 for programs in Blackfoot, Fort Hall and Bannock County. ♥

SUPPORTING EDUCATION: $30,000

BEA teamed up with Crush the Curve Idaho to sponsor a summer essay contest. Students from kindergarten through 12th grade submitted essays in one of five categories, based on age. ♥

SUPPORTING SMALL BUSINESS: $100,000

BEA partnered with United Way to provide grants to area small businesses to aid in their recovery from the impacts of the pandemic. Over 300 businesses applied and 28 received grants ranging from $3,000 to $4,000 each. All eligible businesses had scaled back operations in some way. ♥

TEAM INL: $10,000

A small group of dedicated employees, known as Team INL, volunteered to take part in a socially distanced community service project. ♥
